Horrible Fate of a Hungarina Who Murdered His Daughter-in-Law.

A Jealous Lover Murders His Sweethear -Rheinlander's Hallucination-Arrest of the Dallas Ravisher.

Strung Up to a Tree.

WILKESBARRE, PA., September 5 .-- Zorgorski, the Hungarian who killed his daughter-in-law and attempted to commit suicide by cuttling his throat at Slabtown on Monday night, has been lynched. Wednesday night he crept out of the house in which he was lying into a hogpen near-by, where he was allowed to remain, being too weak to escape. Yesterday morning he was not to be found.

When search was made he was discovered hanging to a ree, half a mile away, with plain evidence that he had been lynched, though by whom is not known. There was evidently a number of men engaged, for the fo tpriats of at least a dozen were distinct y seen in the soft ground. He had been dragged from the hog pen through the wood to the p ace of the impromptu ex cution and hanged to the limb of a tree with a strap. This is the first lynching that ever occurred in this county. A Coroner's Jury has been impaneled, and an investigation will be made, though everybody is in sympathy with the lynchers. The daughter-in-law had apparently given him no cause for killing her, beyond urging with insistency that he should eat some berries which he refused to partake of.

Maggie Seeling Murdered by Her Jealous Lover. COLUMBUS, O., September 5 .- This morning J. W. Greiner shot and killed Miss Maggie G. Seeling at the residence of C. A. Parratt on Third street. Jealousy was the cause of the murder. The girl had been employed by Parratt as a domestic, and Greiner called on her last night, and was ordered away by her but refused to go, when she called Parratt, who ordered him away. Greiner left threatening to kill both in the morning. He killed the girl at the first shot and then snapped the pistol twice at Parratt, who grappled with him, but the pistol missed fire. He then struck Parratt on the back of the neck, and broke loose and ran from the house, but was caught.

A box of thirty-two cartridges was found on his person, also a letter addressed to Mayor Walcott, stating that he was going to kill Miss Seeling and then kill simself.

Arrest of the Negro who Assaulted the Dallas Woman. Dallas, Tex., September 5 .- Bill Taylor, the negro recently arrested in Fort Worth charged with having brutally assaulted the wife of City Treasurer Flippen, of this city, a few months ago, during his absence in Europe, was held yesterday on $1,000 bail for assault, and $1,500 for burglary, in default of which he went to jail. It is thought that Taylor and another negro, not yet captured, are the ones who raped and attempted to rape so many white women in Dallas about the time of the outrage upon Mrs. Filippen. The great excitement that existed at the time is reviving, and the indications are that Taylor and his confederate, when captured, will be lynched.

Cheated the Justice of His Fees.

CINCINNATI, O., September 5 .- On Wednesday a stranger was arrested at Avondale for stealing, and locked up in the Town Hall call-room. He gave his name as John Graham, aged twentyeight; no home. His hearing was set for this morning. When the jailor entered the call-room he found Graham suspended to the top of the cell by a piece of blanket tied about his neck. Life had been extinct several hours. The body was removed to the Morgue.

He then dripped some nitric acid into the vial in which the solution was placed and the fluid assumed s deep red color, gradually changing to a light orange color, plainly showing that the stuff was Iudian hasheesh, and not optum, as was supposed. A tabulated statement of the analysis will be made and given to the chief.

NICKS IN A KNIFE,

They Lead to the Indentification of a Murderer.

SALEM, N. J., September 5 .- Howard Sullivan, a negro driver for a Salem farmer, has been traced as the murderer ot Miss Ella Watson some weeks ago, by means of a knife with two nicks in the blade. He sold the knife two days after the murder to a little boy, and the nicks in the blade, fitting the breaks in the freshly-cut sapling with which the girl was killed, and the nails and breaks in the sole of his boots precisely fitting the tracks beside the scene of the murder, the proof was considered complete. The production of the knife, the tremot of the murderer, as he was identified, and his protestations of innocence and his conduct before the Justice, made quite a dramatic scene in the Sheriff's office, the other negroes in custody who were thereby exculpated, being amongst the most interested of the spec-

To the police who carried him to a room at the Palmer House, Gamble said he had leaped out of a third-story window and had caught on the telegraph wires and fallen to the ground. He offered no further explanation. It is said the leap was due to the appearance of a police officer and the alleged "injured husband," but it turns out that the couple were on their way to another flat in the same house to arrest a brother of a prominent merchant. Gamble is in a precarious condition.

GENEVA, N. Y., September 5.- Hon. Charles J. Folger, Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, died at his home here at 4:45 yesterday afternoon. He had been prostrate from overwork for several weeks, and his friends were not unprepared for the news of his death.

CHARLES JAMES FOLGER was born in Nantucket, Mass., April 16, 1818. When he was twelve years old, he moved with his parents to Geneva. He graduated with honor at the Geneva College in 1836, and soon after commenced the study of law in Canandalgua. After three years, he was admitted to the Bar of the Supreme Court, and entered immediately into the practice of his profession at Geneva.

In 1851 he was elected County Judge of Ontario County, and held that office four years. In those days Judge Folger was known as a Democrat, but disagreeing with his party on the slavery question, he alifed himself with the Republicans, and has since been one of the leaders of that party in the State. In 1861 he was first elected to the State Senate, and was re-elected in 1863, 1865 and 1867, when his Senatorial term expired.

In 1869 President Grant appointed him United States Sub-Treasurer at New York, which office he held until 1879, when he was elected Judge of the Court of Appeals. In May, 1880, Governor Cornell designated him as Chief Justice, to fill a vacancy, and he was afterward nominated and elected as such in the fall of the same year.

In October, 1881, he was appointed Secretary of the Treasury, for which office he qualified on November 14, and held it at the time of his death.

On September 10, 1882, he-was nomi-nated at Saratoga for the office of Governor, but was defeated at the polls. In public office he was painstaking and conscientions, and personal attention to details which properly belonged to his subordinates has probably hastened his
